ALMOST A FANTASY: QUASI UNA FANTASIA (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Beautiful and intensely talented but troubled, Ms. Luthior is a violin prodigy who lives her days within the confines of a mental institute. Her life there seems a carousel of events, as if she's stuck within the loop of some DC al coda that just keeps sending her back to the beginning. However, when her doctor takes her violin (because it's an -agitation-), she is suddenly alone and drowning, and she becomes determined to take back that organic, essential piece of herself. Veering haphazardly from present to past, reality to fantasy, Ms. Luthior's story is an exploration of loss and mental illness, but, at its heart, it's also a story about unchecked passion-for music, for life, and for human connection. Almost a Fantasy: -Quasi una Fantasia- is a short work of experimental fiction, and it operates under two major restrictions. One, it is a lipogram, omitting the letter E from the entirety of its pages, and two, its form mirrors the musical structure of a sonata. Whether you're a lover of music or language-or both-there's something to appreciate in the dark and melancholy notes of this short story.
