Ktc Phase IICC, LLC, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Thirty Days of Thoughts About Christian Recovery and the Holidays is a collection of thoughts, memories, and lessons learned over twenty years of recovery with family and friends. Best-selling author Rev. Dr. Kevin T. Coughlin Ph.D. shares his thoughts, heart, and soul as you travel a journey of thirty days of his thoughts, memories, and lessons learned over two decades of recovery with him. You can expect this thoughtful little book to bring up some feelings and memories from your lifetime. This honest, heartfelt look at life and some of the truths learned by the author are priceless. Recovery can be a tough for some people, depending on their life situations. The Holidays are an extremely hard time of year for those in recovery. If nothing else, perhaps this literary pearl will make us all more aware of the human condition that impacts us all at certain times of our lives. There s nothing like a good book, a warm drink, a comfortable chair in front of a glowing fireplace on a cold winter s night, where that book makes us think, feel, and want to be a better human being. Thirty Days of Thoughts About Christian Recovery and the Holidays is the author s tenth book. This book is dedicated to the author s writing coach, Samuel Benjamin Pierson who passed in 2010.
