LETTERS TO SPIRITUAL CHILDREN: 2011-2103

Dog Ear Publishing. Paperback. Condition: New. 84 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.2in. Everyone is at a different stage of life, yet we all need to continue to grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ so as not be carried away with the error of lawless people or lose our stability in Christ, to paraphrase Peter (See 2 Pet 3: 17, 18). And, this is primarily the responsibility of the Church. But, we recognize that is not always the case for everyone. It is a difficult task in twenty-first century America to find a church that proclaims the Gospel, lives the Gospel imperatives and nurtures the saints. So, in August of 2011 we decided to give another shot at nurturing those who were in our lives for a season as young people. We began sending by electronic mail Letters to Spiritual Children. This little book grew out of that effort. Bill and Susan Kriner live near the Eastern Continental Divide in Clearfield, PA. They have been married for forty years, together on a journey to the Celestial City. In the 1990s they were instrumental in establishing a Christian ministry, Teaching About Gods Glory, known locally as the TAGG Team. Each summer a team of college students would come together to teach summer Bible schools at churches in the area. During that period of time, it was the privilege of the authors to nurture those young folks in the Biblical and Reformed faith through group Bible studies and individual prayer. These young people became spiritual children to the authors. This book is a renewed nurture in the lives of those spiritual children who are now adults and many, parents. The Kriners belong to Grace Reformed Presbyterian Church (PCA) of Clearfield and DuBois, PA, which they helped to...
