

The Middletown Myth Based on True Events

By Baird Davis

AuthorHouse. Paperback. Condition: New. 176 pages. Dimensions: 7.9in. x 4.9in. x 0.7in. The Middletown Myth brings to life the raw and gritty underbelly of a police department that once was. It has been said that the line between the mind of a criminal and that of a policeman is a very fine line. This story shows a sons dedication to finding what is true in the midst of deception surrounding a profound act of malice toward his father. As he follows the story to its end, he remains true to the sincerity and sense of justice that defined him as a child. In his journey, this son of a city cop finds the answers to long-sought questions. In the end, the line between good and evil becomes more clear, but not without a dozen mysteries being resolved, first. NOT RECOMMENDED FOR CHILDREN This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
