Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This lined journal reproduces the empowering cover from the book Writing While Female or Black or Gay: Diverse Voices in Publishing. The lined journal is a perfect place to explore how to write a book during NaNoWriMo, or any other time of the year. About Writing While Female or Black or Gay: An immensely helpful, illuminating, and invaluable resource for writers and readers that speaks truth to power in the publishing industry. Writers know how to write a book or are well on their way to learning how to write a novel. They strive daily to improve their narrative writing skills and their abilities writing poetry and with story writing. In their quest to succeed, they have attended writing workshops, networked with other writers, and possibly even attended residency programs as an author. Learning how to write is only part of the process, no matter whether you are a career book writer, participating in NaNoWriMo every November, or wondering what habits serve an aspiring writer best. Writers can graduate from a master class, know the basic tools of the trade, an author also need to know about the mechanisms behind the publishing industry. Other books on writing offer writing tools, ideas about the writing process, insight into the author's craft, and even the writing life. Only Writing While Female or Black or Gay uncovers the unwritten rules that impact every decision made from creation to contract. Written from an experienced and practical view on the writer's craft and the writing life, this work is a must-have resource for every author. Writing a memoir, an epic fantasy, a historical series, the next literary award-winner, essays, a short story collection, true crime, or...
