

Surprising Merrily: A Play in One Act

By Ron Speers

Anglican House Publishers, Inc., United States, 2013. DVD video. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Anglicans comprise the third largest Christian group globally. Although the newly formed Anglican Church in North America (Est. 2009) is in communion with the vast majority of other Anglicans worldwide, very few lay people here in North America can explain Anglicanism effectively. How to get people up-to-speed about Anglicanism in reasonably short order? Even inspire one to dig deeper into it. Books? Teachings? Well, of course. But how about a little technology? A DVD perhaps. But not the infomercial sort of thing. What if an entertainment answered the question What is Anglicanism? Helped people to tell others Why I m an Anglican? What if there were, well, a one-act stage play? One that wasn t churchy at all, though accurate and entertaining. Maybe add a little Gershwin music for good measure. And a prickly media lady - we ll call her Merrily Inclement - to confront historical Anglicans C.S. Lewis, Thomas Cranmer and Richard Hooker. What if Hollywood got involved - filmed a great performance by professional actors, producer, director, cinematographers, film editors, sound people . . . the Hollywood cinematic works? Well,...
