Potentials Realized Media. Paperback. Condition: New. 450 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 1.0in. We live and work in an increasingly digital world. From coaching to meetings, from training to events, more and more of our professional interactions are moving from the real world to the virtual realm. But while technology continues to evolve at lightning speed, much of our communication methodology is still stuck in the 20th century. The result Miscommunication, disengagement, and lost time and productivity. Effective Virtual Conversations: Engaging Digital Dialogue for Better Learning, Relationships and Results is the antidote to this situation. In this world of ever-increasing virtual communication, if you conduct online meetings, training, or coaching, Effective Virtual Conversations is your go-to book for reducing the bumps and wrong turns along your journey to communicating effectively in the virtual sphere. - Suzan Czajkowski, MA, PCC, TheCommCoach Written by award-winning group coaching and team development expert and former global virtual leader Jennifer Britton, Effective Virtual Conversations is your guide to successfully navigating and getting the most out of this brave new world of communication. I have recently used this roadmap successfully in my work with top-management and leaders in Sweden, Serbia, and other countries. Jennifers book walks its talk. - Martin Lagerstrom - Executive Coach, Consultant and Advisor, Statistics Sweden Step by step, youll develop not only the necessary skills to communicate and lead across a constantly changing range of platforms, but the confidence you need to build interpersonal connections, facilitate events and successfully translate almost any activity to the virtual realm. Youll learn: Essential elements and core skills of virtual conversations Understanding and avoiding the Death by Conference Call mindset Safety, Connection and Trust the Triad of Virtual Learning The importance of understanding cultural differences How to design a successful virtual event from start to finish...
