Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: French . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Jamais le nombre de ceux qui se destinent a la scene n a ete aussi grand que de nos jours; jamais les doleances sur la rarete des bons acteurs n ont ete plus vives, plus generales, et j ajoute a regret, mieux justifiees. Les auteurs excusent leur propre sterilitie proclamant qu ils manquent d interpretes. Les directeurs voient depuis longtemps leurs cadres s affaiblir, sans espoir de reparer leurs pertes. Les artistes, en tres petit nombre, qui conservent le privilege d attirer la foule, sentent si bien leur superiorite, qu ils en abusent de toutes manieres, et que leur acquisition devient parfois, pour les entreprises, une cause d embarras, sinon de ruine. Dans le monde, vous entendrez souvent des comparaisons pleines d amertume, entre la misere du present et la fecondite du dernier siecle, ou tant d acteurs accomplis rivalisaient de talent et de zele. Cette decadence du genie scenique ne serait-elle qu un jeu de la fatalite, un mal sans remede ? Je ne suis pas de ceux qui nient la necessite des vocations speciales, et je sais tout ce qu il y a de hasardeux, d inexplicable dans l apparition des pas des etres superieurs; mais je suis loin de croire que le nature, apres s etre epuisee pour une generation, reste sterile pour l age suivant: et quand arrive, dans un art, une de ces epoques malades ou chacun semble se laisser aller de l impuissance au decouragement, c est, n en doutons pas, que tous les efforts sont paralysees par un influence funeste qu on doit s efforcer de decouvrir.
