From the Ruins of Empire: The Revolt Against the West and the Remaking of Asia

By Pankaj Mishra

Penguin Books Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, From the Ruins of Empire: The Revolt Against the West and the Remaking of Asia, Pankaj Mishra, Pankaj Mishra's provocative account of how China, India and the Muslim World are remaking the world in their own image - shortlisted for the Orwell Prize 2013. It is shortlisted for the Orwell prize 2013. Viewed in the West as a time of self-confident progress, the Victorian period was experienced by Asians as a catastrophe. As the British gunned down the last heirs to the Mughal Empire or burned down the Summer Palace in Beijing, it was clear that for Asia to recover a new way of thinking was needed. Pankaj Mishra re-tells the history of the past two centuries, showing how a remarkable, disparate group of thinkers, journalists, radicals and charismatics emerged from the ruins of empire to create an unstoppable Asian renaissance, one whose ideas lie behind everything from the Chinese Communist Party to the Muslim Brotherhood, and have made our world what it is today. Reviews: "Arrestingly original .this penetrating and disquieting book should be on the reading list of anybody who wants to understand where we are today". (John Gray,...

Reviews

This is actually the very best book i actually have read till now. This is for all those who statte that there was not a worth studying. Its been written in an remarkably straightforward way which is merely following i finished reading this publication by which in fact altered me, modify the way i believe.
