Open Hearts Open Doors: Reflections on China's Past and Future (English/traditional Chinese Version) (Hardback)

By Elizabeth Gill Lui

Cornell University Press, United States, 2008. Hardback. Condition: New. Bilingual. Language: English, Chinese. Brand New Book. AVAILABLE IN TWO BILINGUAL EDITIONS: English/Traditional Chinese (ISBN: 978-0-9796165-0-1) and English/Simplified Chinese (ISBN: 978-0-9796165-3-2) The Chinese are especially proud of their cultural heritage, and it will be on this foundation that their continually evolving cultural narrative will stand. Were the world to come respectfully to China with this understanding, the Chinese would be inspired to place even greater value on their rich legacy. from the Epilogue by I. M. Pei My hope is that this body of work may inspire compassionate understanding of Chinese culture and its lasting beauty, be it a tangible reality that survives or at the least a record of a past that led to a better future for a great people and a fascinating nation. Elizabeth Gill Lui A movement for historical preservation is taking hold in China as more people realize the extent to which the country's historical character has already been sacrificed to economic development. For example, about 75 percent of the old city of Beijing has vanished- including hundreds of Ming-dynasty dwellings razed in favor of a new financial district. This spectacular book, both a collection of...
