Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Cleveland s Administration, Vol. 2: With Portraits of the Presidential Candidates The National Cyclopaedia of American Biography has been undertaken to provide a biographical record of the United States worthy to rank with the great National Biographies of Europe. It embrace the biographical sketches of ail persons prominently connected with the history of the nation. Not only do rulers, statesmen, soldiers, persons note worthy in the church, at the bar, in literature, art, science, and the professions find place, but also those who have contributed to the industrial and commercial progress and growth of the country. The aim of the work is to exemplify and perpetuate, in the broadest sense, American civilization through its chief personalities. Such a work of historical biography has never before been attempted - Previous works have either excluded the living, or limited them to u well-known few in the centres of activity. But this Cyclopaedia is unique. It has been prepared upon new lines which insure its being the biographical authority of the century. It is intended to make this Cyclopaedia National, representing the entire Republic, and reflecting the spirit, genius and life of each section. It is acknowledged that the great forces which to-day contribute most largely to the growth of the country are the men who have developed its industrial and commercial resources, and it is believed that, while literary workers should be accorded ample representation, those who contribute so much to the material and physical welfare of the country deserve and command fuller recognition than has before been accorded them in works of this character. Achievements in engineering, electricity, or architecture; improvements in locomotives, looms or ploughs,...
