Omniscriptum, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: French . Brand New Book. Cet ouvrage decrit la responsabilite en droit senegalais, des depositaires de secrets par etat et par profession a partir de l exemple des notaires et de celui des medecins. Concernant les notaires, l auteur decrit le secret notarial, l importance de le respecter et les sanctions encourues en cas de violation de secrets. S agissant des medecins, l auteur evoque le serment d Hippocrate, le code de deontologie medicale et le code penal qui les obligent sous peine de sanction, a respecter scrupuleusement le secret medical sauf dans les cas ou la loi les autoriserait a le reveler. Par ailleurs, il analyse la situation des etudiants en medecine qui eu egard a la plethore de patients et au ratio insuffisant de medecins par habitants, jouent parfois un premier role dans l administration des soins aux patients sans avoir prete serment. Qu adviendra t-il s ils revelent ce dont souffre un malade se questionne l auteur avant d y apporter la reponse. Aussi, evoque t-il la controverse du secret medical face au VIH/SIDA en prenant le cas d un couple serodiscordant. Le medecin doit il informer le conjoint non infecte par le VIH du statut serologique de son epoux ou epouse? A decouvrir!.
