Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.In love, and hoping to avoid the draft, Atticus and Noel secretly marry at City Hall. Their happiness is interrupted by a fateful letter from the Selective Service; the forces-at-play have ordered Atticus to report for active duty. The night before Atticus departs, he picks up a six-pack at the corner liquor store. He blurts his fate to Wally, the owner, who attempts to console him. Wally says he d also been drafted and served as a combat Marine in World War II.but, in the middle of his story, he drifts into a trance. He recovers, peers deep into Atticus eyes, sees something, but refuses to say what it was. In the morning, Atticus reluctantly takes a train to the Selective Service Center. Like Wally, he is inducted into the Marine Corps. At the MCRD in San Diego, he is nicknamed Mr. Attitude by a boot camp drill instructor, and it sticks. Mr. Attitude becomes convinced information about his attitude is following him from duty station to duty station. The warnings about his behavior plague him and...
